

Our academic package options

Master's degrees and MBAs. Deals Start from R5,500.

Although not so academically strenuous as a PhD or DBA, all of our services also apply to MA and MBA courses.

We offer reduced chapter rates on all of our MA and MBA courses.

Editage Academy also offers premium packages that combine most elements of your chosen degree into a single, affordable price.

PhD Basic: From as little as R6,500.

Valued at over R9,000 we would explore recent, relevant research in your chosen field and present you with a fully developed topic that resonates with your academic vision.

As soon as your institution has approved this topic, we would draft a submittable research proposal on your behalf.

PhD Comprehensive: Deal starts from R12,000.

Depending on university guidelines, the PhD Comprehensive is valued at R17,500.

As with the PhD Basic, a topic and proposal will be developed for submission.

This package includes the thesis' Introduction chapter, the Literature Review, as well as the Methodology chapter.

PhD Premium: From as little as R16,500 to R27,500.

This premium package, valued at over R32,500 (depending on university guidelines), includes all services Editage Academy offers, from Topic Development to Journal Publication.

The most prestigious offering Editage Academy has to present, this truly is the best value for money. This all-encompassing service shepherds your thesis from conceptualisation, all the way to journal publication.

We will assist you through every step of your journey, including designing your data capturing tool, all data analyses – be it qualitative or quantitative – as well as drafting the perfect conclusion chapter.

Once this has been completed, we offer exceptional editing services to ensure that your thesis is submission-ready and according to your university guidelines.

Once your thesis has been approved, a journal article is drafted from your findings, to be presented for review. Furthermore, you will have unlimited access to a dedicated client relationship manager to engage you every step of the way.
